Gumby's Young Guns-ALL: HE'S SET TO PEFORM AT THE BIG DANCE, ALL GUMBY NEEDS IS THE CHANCE

The Cured Blueveins-ALL: BLUEVEINIA!

FINALS: This season, this year 2005 this finals season Play On will carry over the stats from the first week of the AFL finals matches for the two teams that get a bye in the second week of the finals series therefore eliminating the best two teams not having stats in Play On's week 1 of the finals. e.g. if the finals are tomorrow and the Eagles and Melbourne win in week 1 and get a bye in week 2, whatever stats their players got in week 1 would carry over for Play On week 1 of the finals. As a famous beer advertisement says "Brilliant...!" So if Brad Green kicked 3 goals plus stats in week 1 those same stats carry over to week one of the Play On finals. After that, ie week 2 of Play On finals all stats are cleared and then for the Eagles and Demons players their actual stats would count again as normal. We could have gone for averages but it seems easier to take actual scores and also easier to understand and follow. So the cat is now amongst...good gaming!
